September 11th is a day that many of us will always remember very vividly. It was the worst terrorist attack on American soil in American history. Thousands of innocent people lost their lives on that clear September day. I can still remember the images of law enforcement officers, Firefighters, and EMTs heading toward the towers as others were fleeing to safety.

Though it may not garner as much media attention as the tragic events of September 11th there are still today men and women who make sacrifices and put their lives in harm’s way as public servants. On this September 11th we want to take a moment to express our appreciation to our local Law Enforcement Officers, Firefighters, and EMTs. During the 10:30 service on the 11th we will be having Public Servants Day. I want to encourage you to be in attendance on this special day and if you know someone who serves in Law Enforcement, Fire Service, or Emergency Response please invite them to be our special guest.

YES, LORD!

Season of Prayer for State Missions

September 11-18

In John 21:17b, Peter passionately exclaims to Jesus, “Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you.” Jesus’ response to Peter is one of equal passion - “Feed My sheep.” Through the Janie Chapman State Missions Offering, we, as South Carolina Baptists have the opportunity to give and pray so that more may be “fed” – physically and spiritually, through a variety of ministries.
