We Can Grow!

I have entered into this new year with a renewed sense of excitement about what the Lord can accomplish through BFBC. I'm most encouraged by the reality that we can grow! Over the last couple of years, our average worship attendance has hovered around 550. I pray that this will be the year that we see that number begin to climb. I believe and am convinced that we can see BFBC grow! Would it be too big of a goal to strive for 600 in average worship attendance? I don't think so. In 2017 let's give the Lord first priority in our lives. Let's be committed to serving and worshipping the Lord together each week. Let's create a culture of inviting and including newcomers into our fellowship! How exciting to think about accomplishing something great for the glory of God! Let's begin this week by filling our Sunday School classes and the morning worship services. No time like the present. Let's start growing this week!

For Him,
Chad

Families of Faith

On Sunday, January 15 we will begin a new morning message series titled, Families of Faith. In this series, we will explore the biblical foundations of the family.

We will cover:

- what it means to be husband and wife
 - singleness is not a handicap
 - raising children
 - caring for parents
 - God's gift of intimacy
 - and several other topics.

A great way to process the principles presented in the morning message is by participating in a Sermon Discussion Group. These groups meet on Sunday evenings and provide an excellent opportunity for fellowship and spiritual formation. You will find Small Group sign-up sheets in the Welcome Center this Sunday.

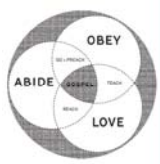

Valentine's Banquet

Here at BFBC we want to be a part of building and strengthening marriages.

With that goal in mind, on Friday, February 10, we will have a couples Valentine's Banquet. There will be music, fun, food, and principles to strengthen relationships. Childcare will be provided for children up to 5 years old. This is a ticketed event. The tickets are $20 per couple. The sign-up deadline is February 5. You will not want to miss this special evening!!
